

Administration

Concept and Roles in Administration

Within the guidelines established by Council policy, law and employee agreements, the Executive Director shall direct and coordinate the administrative staff in implementing the educational philosophy, and achieving the goals and general objectives of the Council.

The CREC Council expects the administration to demonstrate leadership and to resolve the inevitable problems which will arise both inside the school system and in its relations with the community. Further, the administration is expected to develop good working relationships with the total CREC community for the achievement of common goals.
