

Wallingford Schools

Close out of eleven different school construction projects per BSF standards. Again, CREC was hired after the construction was completed. CREC helped manage the closeout process from final payments to Architects and CM's to submitting final change order.

Project Completed:	2008
---------------------------	------

*This project was reimbursable by the Bureau of School Facilities