Many schools rely on us for all their office and classroom products. What might surprise you is that Staples is also a leader in custodial supplies. Keep your school running smoothly and your students, facility and staff healthy and working hard with Staples wide assortment of custodial supplies.

At Staples, you'll find all your custodial supplies at a cost that's right for your school. Our buying power helps you get great pricing on the most recognizable brand-name products. Plus, we make it easy with online ordering, reporting systems and simple invoicing. With a nationwide team of specialized experts, we work to understand your needs and implement a solution that is best for your organization.

Is Sustainability important to your schools?

We support your eco-friendly efforts by offering a number of custodial products, such as Green Seal-certified towels and tissues, recycled can liners, and our own line of exclusive Sustainable Earth® brand cleaning products, designed to clean as well or better than commercially-available counterparts.
