Designed for secondary social studies and English Language Arts teachers, and created through a partnership among three leaders in education – the Anti-Defamation League, the USC Shoah Foundation Institute for Visual History and Education, and Yad Vashem – Echoes and Reflections is a valuable resource that provides teachers with the tools to teach the complex issues of the Holocaust and its lessons for today. This dynamic curriculum is used in by more than 19,000 educators across the country and:

- promotes an interdisciplinary approach to teaching about the Holocaust to today's students;
- addresses academic standards – including Common Core State Standards – using informational texts and primary source documents; and
- incorporates compelling visual history testimony into ten multi-part and modular lessons to engage students in the lives of survivors, rescuers, liberators, and other witnesses of the Holocaust.

All participants will receive a copy of the Echoes and Reflections curriculum. Registration is required for this workshop and seating is limited.
