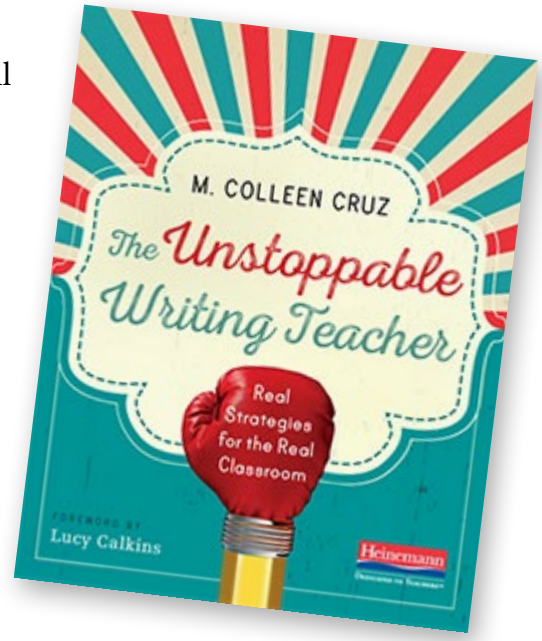
In this full-day workshop, Colleen Cruz, member of Teachers College Reading and Writing Project and published author of, "The Unstoppable Writing Teacher," will discuss the struggles and roadblocks faced in writing instruction, with tried-and-true strategies to implement in the classroom immediately. Colleen will provide solutions to everyday problems in the writing classroom, and offer suggestions to enhance writing instruction to meet the needs of all learners.



Participants may wish to bring laptops.

Target Audience: Grades 3–8 classroom teachers, instructional and literacy coaches, ELA leadership team. Author book is included in cost. Coffee/tea service in the AM, and lunch is provided.

BIO

In addition to writing the recently published The Unstoppable Writing Teacher, Professor Cruz is the author of several other titles for teachers, including Independent Writing and A Quick Guide to Reaching Struggling Writers, as well as the author of the young adult novel Border Crossing, a Tomás Rivera Mexican American Children's Book Award finalist. Ms. Cruz was a classroom teacher in general education and inclusive settings before joining the Teachers College Reading and Writing Project where she is a Senior Lead Staff Developer. Professor Cruz currently supports schools, teachers and their students, nationally and internationally, as a literacy consultant.
