

TEACHING THE HOLOCAUST EMPOWERING STUDENTS

WHY ATTEND THIS PROGRAM?

This learning opportunity will prepare you to initiate the important discussions and respond to the toughest questions your students have about the Holocaust. The why. The how.

Echoes & Reflections is the premier source for Holocaust Educational materials and dynamic content. In this in-person workshop, Echoes & Reflections provides and equips educators with research-based strategies for teaching about the Holocaust. The program is developed with the busy educator in mind, providing practical ways to confidently teach about the Holocaust. The lesson plans are created for middle and high school educators to teach about the Holocaust effectively and interactively. Lessons are organized by topic representing major themes, allowing for customization by school and grade level.

PROGRAM GOALS

Through this program, educators will:

- 1 Gain strategies and resources to teach the Holocaust in their classroom;
- 2 Learn ways to engage students in reflection and critical thinking about how the Holocaust influences social issues today;
- 3 Discover and utilize classroom-ready digital assets including lesson plans, visual history testimonies, and additional primary source materials;
- 4 Enhance personal knowledge about the Holocaust, including the history of antisemitism, and
- 5 Learn how to use the Echoes & Reflections materials, practically and effectively in their schools and classrooms

"The ultimate job of a teacher is to make connections to your students with the curriculum. You want them to walk away with a personal sense of responsibility. Echoes & Reflections helps me do that."

— Social Studies Teacher
