

Personnel – Certified/Non-Certified

Retirement

Any certified employee may retire under provisions of the retirement plan or system provided for teachers in the public schools of the State. (See Connecticut General Statutes re Normal Retirement, Proratable Retirement, Early Retirement, Deferred Vested Retirement, and Disability Allowance) All other employees shall be covered by social security and are eligible to participate in the CREC Savings and Pension Plan.

Separation

Teachers who, for any reason, intend to resign or who intend to retire are encouraged to indicate their plans to their Administrator at as early a date in the school year as possible.

Legal Reference: Connecticut General Statutes

10-183f (a) Normal retirement

10-183f (b) Pro-ratable retirement

10-183f (c) Early retirement

10-183f (d) Deferred vested retirement

10-183w Retirement at age seventy. Exception

10-183aa Disability allowance

Public Law 95-256 Age Discrimination in Employment Act - amendments of 1978

Policy adopted: September 17, 2003

CAPTIOL REGION EDUCATION COUNCIL
Hartford, Connecticut