Personnel -- Certified

Copyrights and Patents

CREC recognizes that staff members under contract to CREC may, in carrying out their professional responsibilities, develop patentable or copyrightable educational materials for use in the school program. It is understood by CREC and the staff members that such materials developed as part of regular employment are the properties of CREC.

CREC retains the right to legal claim on all products created by its employees on the job with the assistance of CREC funds.

(cf. 4132 - Publication or Creation of Materials)